

Visiting Editors Tell What They Think of Us

Impressed by Skyscrapers and Coney Island—
Depressed by Lack of Enthusiasm for Parker—New Yorkers Ignorant of Their Own City.

After seeing Judge Parker at Esopus the visiting Democratic newspaper editors went to Coney Island last night. They were the guests of Senator Pat McCarron, who is part owner of Dreamland. They reached the island late by special boat, and after looking around several hours returned to their hotels in Manhattan in very excellent humor.

Col. John I. Martin, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Democratic National Committee, was in charge of the party on the Coney Island visit. The Colonel saw to it that no bunch steered got near enough to his guests to do them any harm.

The visiting editors, many of whom had never seen New York before, all say they have had the time of their lives, and all vote this to be the greatest town on earth. In answer to the question as to what most interested them on their present visit the visitors gave characteristic replies. They are given below:

"I have been impressed strongly by the number of well-dressed men and women I have seen on the streets. Where do you get all your good clothes?"—P. C. SCHMIDT, the Nord-western, Manitowish, Wis.

"Your new subway interested me very greatly. It is certainly a great engineering feat successfully accomplished."—ERNEST BAXTER, Democrat, Little Rock, Ark.

"Of course the mammoth office buildings and splendid hotels attracted my first attention. I would prefer my offices on the ground floor, however. Do you walk upstairs when your elevator gives out?"—J. M. AXTELL, Pippin County News, Durand, Wis.

Horse-Cars a Curiosity.

"The horse-cars I saw at Thirty-fourth Street Ferry, I had almost forgotten there were such institutions still in existence."—J. E. LATHAM, Farmers' Mechanic, Raleigh, N. C.

"I am congratulating myself that up to this time none of our association has been held up and robbed. Aren't all these stories of Wild West doings true?"—J. M. KINNEY, Daily Times, Marietta, O.

"The world's big newspaper plant and its perfect system has interested me as much as anything else I have seen."—M. H. HOOVER, Daily Union-Sun, Lockport, N. Y.

"I have been impressed by everything we saw from Esopus to Coney Island. The visit has been enjoyable in every feature. Sorry that I've got to go home."—W. F. BEASLEY, Plymouth Beacon, Rockville, N. C.

"The subway interested me greatly, but you will find it hot and stuffy. The ventilation is not good and the noise is terrific. But I suppose you will get used to it."—ANTHONY KILLYON, Hunterdon County Democrat, Flemington, N. J.

"I was impressed by your so-called Flatiron Building as an architectural monument. If it should ever blow over what would the Fudge do for a proper display?"—FRED W. CORSON, Union Sun, Lockport, N. Y.

"Oh, I've been in New York before, you know. It's a great town."—LEONARD B. GREEN, Argus, Patchogue, L. I.

Amazed at Coney Island.

"I am amazed at the new Coney Island and its marvelous attractions. It equals the World's Fair."—HENRY D. GREEN, Telegram, Reading, Pa.

"Oh, you New Yorkers are really behind the times, but you don't know it. That fact impressed me strongly."—W. B. FOWELL, News, Bunker Hill, Ill.

"The new hotel—the St. Regis, is it? The one Astor has just built, I mean. I would like to see the idiot who first threw the $125 suite."—CHRISTIAN ROEMER, Appleton Wecker & Samsong-Bote, Appleton, Wis.

"That Fall of Pompeii scene at Coney Island is a wonderful piece of inge-
